

University of Notre Dame: MicroVenturing Program, Gigot Center for Entrepreneurial Studies, Mendoza College of Business (Gigot Center for Entrepreneurial Studies)
Please apply online and contact Melissa Paulsen at mpause1@nd.edu to inform her that you have applied. Notre Dame students may be eligible for limited financial support.

Duke University: Duke Center for Civic Engagement (DCCE) DukeEngage

Please apply through
<http://www.dukenews.duke.edu/engage/proposal.html>

The University of Connecticut: Study Abroad Programs

Please apply through <https://secure.sa.uconn.edu/sap/studioabroad/>
UConn students may be eligible for financial support. This program receives nine credit hours.

The College of William and Mary:

Please apply online and contact Drew Stelljes at adstel@wm.edu to inform him that you have applied. William and Mary students may be eligible for limited financial support.

Miami University: Center for Social Entrepreneurship

Please apply online and contact Molly Babbington at babbinm@muohio.edu to inform him that you have applied. Miami students may be eligible for limited financial support and eligible for credit hours.

Franklin and Marshall College: The Ware Institute

Please apply online and contact Dr. Susan Dicklitch at susan.dicklitch@fandm.edu to inform her that you have applied.
Franklin and Marshall students may be eligible for limited financial support. This is an accredited program.

Gonzaga University:

Please apply online and contact Christopher Stevens at stevensc@jepson.gonzaga.edu to inform him that you have applied.
Scholarships may be available.

